The people that I to be my best friends in high school, you know, we ever talk now, and it's always, if we do out, it's been years, and it's kind of like a conversation.

Can you explain the meaning?

The people that I considered to be my best friends in high school, you know, we barely ever talk now, and it's always, if we do reach out, it's been years, and it's kind of like a forced conversation.

A white card with a grid pattern is pinned to a brown cardboard background with a copper paperclip. The card is held in place by several pieces of yellowish-brown tape. The text on the card is centered in a black, sans-serif font.
